Day of Service

On Thursday, November 10th, all Edge students, and staff spent the day volunteering at local non-profits._Our Day of Service is intended to:

- Teach students about the amazing wealth of non-profits that exist in Southern Arizona for the sole purpose of working to solve a community issue.
- Help students experience first-hand how serving others can be fun, fulfilling, and improve our community.
- Provide pathways for interested students to continue volunteering at non-profits in pursuit of independent student service-learning credit.
- Connect students to non-profits so they can build a habit of volunteering and bolster employment and college applications.

On our Day Of Service, Edge was able to support the missions of the following non-profits: GAP Ministries, Felicia's Farm, Ishkashitaa Refugee Network, Southern Arizona Association For The Visually Impaired, Tucson Village Farm, and We Care Tucson.

Our Newest Graduate
